Teversal Visitors Centre

The Teversal Visitors Centre is ideally situated as the access point to the Teversal Trails. There is ample free parking outside the centre and extensive surrounding grass area and coal garden making it an ideal place for picnics. The trails follow the track beds of the former colliery railways, which together with the local footpaths provide tranquil and varied walks through countryside that is abundant with wildlife. Within easy walking distance is the picturesque village of Old Teversal which has connections with Lord Carnarvon of Tutankhamun fame, and also D.H. Lawrence was reported to have stayed there and based Lady Chatterleys Lover on the village. Hardwick Hall is also within walking distance.

Part of the trail is suitable for wheelchair access and there is a much improved wheelchair access at the centre

Available in the Visitor centre are refreshments and light snacks, buffets can be arranged for parties, seating is provided both in and outdoors giving you the ideal opportunity to rest and refresh before or after walking the trails. Help and advice is always available from one of the friendly volunteers who staff the centre seven days a week. On sale is a guide book with walks ranging from one mile to twelve miles, maps, postcards and souvenirs are also available.

Numerous exciting events, shows and exhibitions take place at the Visitor centre so remember to check the notice boards for forthcoming attractions The centre is available for public hire to hold meetings, events, exhibitions etc. Please enquire at the centre for availability and hire charges.
