The Menu is hierarchical

You need to drag the page to the appropriate position, both vertically AND horizontally, on the menu
If a page is indented relative to the item above...then it becomes a new menu level

Be careful when dragging and dropping the selected page

it's easy to "drop it" or even "pick up" a different page it may become an iterative process

Once the menu looks correct Click on the "Save Menu" button

IF the menu gets in a muddle
"escape" it by ..

Click on another option on the dashboard and at the prompt..
